Defendants.

Plaintiff PHILIP MORRIS USA INC. ("Philip Morris USA"), for its Complaint herein against all entities as set forth on Exhibit A (collectively "Defendants") attached hereto and incorporated by reference, alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to: (i) 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338(a) and (b); (ii) 15 U.S.C. § 1121, as an action for violation of the Lanham Act, 15

U.S.C. §§ 1051 et seq.; and (iii) 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a), pursuant to the principles of supplemental jurisdiction.

2. Philip Morris USA is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) in that, among other things, Defendants reside or are found in this judicial district and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims herein occurred in this judicial district.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

3. This is an action for: (i) infringement of registered trademarks in violation of Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114; (ii) false designation of origin and trademark and trade dress infringement in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); (iii) unfair competition in violation of the common law of the State of New York; (iv) trademark infringement in violation of the common law of the State of New York; (v) deceptive acts and practices in violation of New York General Business Law Section 349; and (vi) trademark infringement in violation of New York General Business Law Sections 360-k et seq. As described more fully below, Defendants have sold, offered for sale, or otherwise contributed to the sale of counterfeit MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® brand cigarettes, and are therefore liable for direct and/or contributory infringement of Philip Morris USA's lawfully owned trademarks and trade dress. Defendants' conduct has produced and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to produce a likelihood of consumer confusion and deception as well as irreparable injury to Philip Morris USA.

4. For several decades, Philip Morris USA has used, in connection with its tobacco products, the MARLBORO® trademark and various other trademarks incorporating the word MARLBORO® and/or the MARLBORO Roof Design® trademark, a pentagonal figure with a horizontal top and two vertical sides with two upwardly and inwardly sloping diagonals

(collectively, the "Marlboro Trademarks"). Philip Morris USA has spent substantial time, effort and money advertising and promoting the Marlboro Trademarks throughout the United States, and these trademarks have consequently developed significant goodwill, have become distinctive, and have acquired secondary meaning.

5. In an attempt to profit from Philip Morris USA's substantial investment in its Marlboro Trademarks, Defendants have sold cigarettes in packaging that bears spurious marks that are either identical to or substantially indistinguishable from the Marlboro Trademarks. Consumers naturally would expect that cigarettes sold in packaging that bears the famous Marlboro Trademarks would be manufactured, licensed or sponsored by Philip Morris USA or its affiliates. However, Philip Morris USA has confirmed that the cigarettes at issue were not manufactured, licensed or sponsored by, or affiliated with Philip Morris USA or its affiliates, and are counterfeit. Thus, consumers are likely to be confused and/or disappointed by obtaining counterfeit cigarettes when they intended to purchase genuine MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® cigarettes manufactured and sold by Philip Morris USA or its affiliates.

6. As a result of Defendants' actions, Philip Morris USA is suffering a loss of the enormous goodwill Philip Morris USA created in its MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® products and is losing profits from lost sales of genuine products. This action seeks permanent injunctive relief and damages for Defendants' infringement of Philip Morris USA's intellectual property rights.

THE PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Philip Morris USA is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia with its principal place of business at 6601 West Broad Street, Richmond, Virginia 23230.

8. Defendants' names, entity types and addresses are set forth in Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

9. Philip Morris USA does not know the true names and capacities of the Defendants sued herein as Does One through Ten, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Philip Morris USA will amend this Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of these Defendants when it ascertains the same.

FACTS GIVING RISE TO THIS ACTION

A. The Infringed Trademarks

10. Philip Morris USA is the United States owner of the famous Marlboro Trademarks under which the MARLBORO® cigarettes are sold. The Marlboro Trademarks include, without limitation, MARLBORO® and MARLBORO LIGHTS®. Philip Morris USA has invested substantial time, effort and money in advertising and promoting the Marlboro Trademarks throughout the United States. The vast majority of MARLBORO® advertising and promotional activities display the Roof Design® trademark and/or a MARLBORO® word trademark. As a result, the Marlboro Trademarks are reportedly among the most widely recognized trademarks in the United States, and Philip Morris USA has developed significant goodwill in these trademarks. Today, the MARLBORO® brands are the most popular brands of cigarettes sold in the United States.

11. Philip Morris USA is the registered owner of the following trademarks on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"), all of which are valid, subsisting and incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1065:

Registration Number	Registration Date	Trademark
68,502	April 14, 1908	MARLBORO

Registration Number	Registration Date	Trademark
938,510	July 25, 1972	MARLBORO Red Label
1,039,412	May 11, 1976	MARLBORO LIGHTS
1,039,413	May 11, 1976	MARLBORO LIGHTS Label

True and correct copies of these registration certificates and/or computer printouts from the records of the USPTO are attached hereto as Exhibits B through E.

B. Defendants' Sale of Counterfeit Cigarettes

12. Philip Morris USA manufactures cigarettes, including the famous MARLBORO® brand, for sale in the United States. Retail establishments throughout the United States offer these cigarettes for sale to the adult public.

13. Between March 2007 and June 2007, purchasers employed by firms under contract with Philip Morris USA purchased one or more packs (20 cigarettes per pack) of cigarettes bearing the MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® trademarks, from the named Defendants' retail establishments. The dates of these purchases and brands purchased are listed in Exhibit A, attached hereto.

14. The purchasers caused the purchased packs of cigarettes to be delivered to a Philip Morris USA facility. Upon receiving the cigarette packs, Philip Morris USA employees examined them using a series of proprietary inspection methods and conclusively determined that one or more of the packs purchased from each Defendant's retail establishments was counterfeit.

C. The Likelihood of Confusion and Injury Caused by Defendants' Actions

15. The counterfeit MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® brand cigarettes are not the same or of the same quality as those manufactured and sold by Philip Morris USA under the same brand name. As such, consumers who purchase counterfeit MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® brand cigarettes are likely to be confused and/or disappointed by obtaining counterfeit cigarettes when they intended to purchase genuine MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® brand cigarettes. In addition, the sale of counterfeit MARLBORO® and/or MARLBORO LIGHTS® brand cigarettes is likely to cause confusion among consumers regarding Philip Morris USA's sponsorship or approval of the counterfeit cigarettes. As a result of Defendants' actions, Philip Morris USA is suffering a loss of the enormous goodwill Philip Morris USA created in its MARLBORO® products and is losing profits from lost sales of genuine products.

16. Defendants are likely to continue to commit the acts complained of herein, and unless restrained and enjoined, will continue to do so, all to Philip Morris USA's irreparable damage.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(For Infringement of Registered Trademarks in Violation of Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1))

18. The acts of Defendants alleged herein constitute the use in commerce, without the consent of Philip Morris USA, of a reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of one or more of the Marlboro Trademarks in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, or advertising of goods, which use is likely to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive consumers and therefore infringe Philip Morris USA's rights in one or more of the Marlboro Trademarks, in violation of Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1).

19. Philip Morris USA has no adequate remedy at law for the foregoing wrongful conduct. Philip Morris USA has been, and absent injunctive relief will continue to be, irreparably harmed by Defendants' actions.

products as those of Philip Morris USA, or as somehow related or associated with, or sponsored or endorsed by Philip Morris USA.

25. Philip Morris USA has no adequate remedy at law for the foregoing wrongful conduct. Philip Morris USA has been, and absent injunctive relief will continue to be, irreparably harmed by Defendants' actions.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(For Trademark Infringement Under New York State Common Law)

31. By the acts described above, including, without limitation, Defendants' false and/or misleading statements regarding the quality of its products and the legality of their sale, Defendants have engaged in deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of business and furnishing of goods in violation of Section 349 of New York General Business Law. Defendants' conduct is consumer-oriented, has affected the public interest of New York State, and has resulted in injury to consumers within New York.

32. Defendants' deceptive acts or practices are materially misleading and, upon information and belief, have actually deceived, and have a tendency to deceive, a material segment of the persons to whom Defendants have directed their marketing activities, and Philip Morris USA has been injured thereby.

33. Philip Morris USA has no adequate remedy at law for the foregoing wrongful conduct. Philip Morris USA has been, and absent injunctive relief will continue to be, irreparably harmed by Defendants' actions.
